

Seek God First

Seek Me first before you do that which humanly seems right to you.

Come to Me first and share your concerns, expressing your feelings so I can help you learn.

You need to trust in Me alone and I will reveal My Plan because I understand you more than any human can.

I'll change your focus from yourself to one of Worshiping Me. Then I will begin to renew your mind so that you will begin to see.

My call is to obedience, to follow My commands. I will show you how to serve rather than enforce your own commands.

By seeking Me first and receiving My love, I will gladly help you gain - The Joy of building each other up instead of building walls of pain.

The treasure of this relationship focused on first seeking Me will give you the joy of knowing your total confidence is in Me.

Robert W. Roddy, Jr.