

The Secret Door

I opened a Secret door today and slowly came in and sat. I thought I was the only one there, the silence seemed so pat.

Suddenly, I felt the presence of a treasure all aglow. For I had unlocked the special silence of the Holy Trinity's precious flow.

God the Father was in union with the Holy Spirit deep within. Guiding my heart to be more like Jesus, who had died without a sin.

Through the Resurrection and Ascension, the reunion of them all. Our heavenly Father's given us His Holy Spirit, who has filled us with God's call.

And now as I reflect on this and try and grasp what I have found. The Secret to God's peacefulness is within our hearts and by Jesus' death on the cross we too will some day be homeward bound.
